

CENTER FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Online Transition Resources for Faculty

The Center for Academic Excellence is here to support you helping our students succeed.

Below is a list of resources that can help you navigate your course design in the wake of this pandemic.

General Resources

- Online-Teaching-Toolkit_ACUE
- NCCC VLC Faculty Resources
- Magna Pubs Taking Your Teaching Online Collection trainings for course development.
- ACUE's Online Teaching Resources

Resources for Communication

- Remind App Used to communicate with students via cell phone or web
- Google Voice Free google telephone number
- GroupMe Free group messaging
- Google Hangouts Free Chrome Addin for Web Collaboration
- Bb Collaborate Free to use in BlackBoard. Contact Amanda Carter (abcarter@cccc.edu)

Lecture Resources

- How to Create Closed Captions for Blackboard Collaborate
- How to make a Narrated PowerPoint into a captioned Youtube Video
- Edpuzzle Create interactive videos with quiz questions out of any YouTube video and more.
- Flipped instruction with PowerPoint Recorder
- PowerPoint for Office 365 and PowerPoint for the web now offer captions or subtitles shown live as you present to your audience
- Present Closed Captions with Google Slides Video and Instructions
- Using H5P to make Interactive Lessons.

Upcoming Training from System Office

- List of VLC Training Resources and can also be found at VLC Training Resources webpage

Contact Information

- Lisa Knight lknight@cccc.edu
- Amanda Carter abcarter@cccc.edu
- Rodney Powell rpowe757@cccc.edu

There are many trainings on Hoonuit that can help with a variety of issues including course design and the Google Suite of tools*

For kicks and giggles

<https://youtu.be/CCe5PaeAeew>