

Transfer Students

Where did they go?

Persistence

Three years after attaining a CCCC Associate Degree, of those transferring have either graduated or are still enrolled at a 4 year institution!

80%

43%

of students that transferred were from racial/ethnic minority backgrounds

64%

of students that transferred were female

73%

of transfer students were 18-25 at the time of CCCC graduation

Transfer Rate

Nearly one in four CCCC graduates from the past five years has transferred to a four-year institution!

Top Transfer Schools

- 1 North Carolina State University
- 2 University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill
- 3 University of North Carolina - Greensboro

Top Earned Transfer Degrees

-  Business Administration
-  Psychology
-  Criminal Justice
-  Biology

Sources

Definitions:

Persistence is defined as a student who transferred to a four year school are are still currently enrolled or have completed a credential from the transfer institution.

Transfer rate is defined as the percentage of students who graduated from CCCC in the past 5 years and have enrolled in a four-year institution.

Calculations:

Persistence - Determined with National Student Clearinghouse data and Completion by Program (Informer 4)

Graduates - Identified with Completion by Program (Informer 4)

Racial/Ethnic Background - Determined for all students who transferred after CCCC graduation with National Student Clearinghouse data and Completion by Program (Informer 4)

Gender - Determined for all students who transferred after CCCC graduation with National Student Clearinghouse data and Completion by Program (Informer 4)

Age - Determined for all students who transferred after CCCC graduation with National Student Clearinghouse data and Completion by Program (Informer 4)

Transfer Rate - Determined with National Student Clearinghouse data for graduates from the past five years

Top Transfer Schools - Determined with National Student Clearinghouse data for graduates from the past five years

Top Earned Transfer Degrees - Determined with National Student Clearinghouse data for graduates from the past five years

Unless otherwise stated, data represents all graduates within the last five years that transferred to a four-year institution.