

Associate in Arts (AA)- in Teacher Preparation

ABOUT THIS PROGRAM

The Associate in Arts in Teacher Preparation program prepares students for completion of a bachelor's degree in the field of K12 education. Students who complete an AATP degree will be able to transfer 60 credit hours (the equivalent of four semesters of study) to another college or university to complete their undergraduate degree. The AATP may be completed through seated or online classes or a blend of both. AATP students work closely with academic advisors to help them transfer to both public and private universities and colleges. Transfer within the state of North Carolina is done by way of the Comprehensive and Independent Articulation Agreements.

Possible Transfer Institutions:

- UNC - Chapel Hill
